Mr. Levy's firm is in possession of the documents from Bryan Cave and will be able to address your timeline question. We will not be supervising the work of Mr. Levy's firm. That firm has its own NY-licensed partners; it is our understanding that one of them will be supervising this project.

Bob,

We are writing to follow up on our March 22, 2021 email – please acknowledge that you will be supervising Mr. Levy and will be responsible to certify Perfectus’s production, and please provide us with a timeline for further productions.

We are available for a call to discuss.

Best regards,
Sam

Bob, all,

We write in response to your note that Doron Levy, Beny Steinmetz’s Israeli attorney, will be handling Perfectus’s document production going forward. We understand that Mr. Levy is not a member of any U.S. bar and is not admitted to practice in the Southern District of New York, so please confirm to us that you will be supervising Mr. Levy and will be responsible to certify Perfectus's production.

Separately, we understand that Bryan Cave provided you with an additional tranche of documents. Please provide us with the timeline for your production of those documents.

Best regards,
Sam

Bob,

We are once again writing to request that you inform us when you expect to make your further productions – you have ignored the multiple emails I’ve sent following up on the commitment you made more than five weeks ago to promptly produce additional Perfectus documents on a rolling basis. Please respond.

We are also available to discuss the status of the production by phone.

Best,
Emily
